ORDER

This matter is before the court on the government's Motion to Continue Trial [23] as a counsel has a previously scheduled trial conflicting with the current trial date. Good cause being shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the motion to continue trial is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for June 30, 2015 is continued to August 11, 2015.
2. The time between today's date and the commencement of trial is deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that in continuing trial the ends of justice outweigh the best interest of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial and for the reasons set out in the government's motion to continue trial, See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(7)(A).

A party may object to the magistrate judge's order by filing an "Statement of Objections to Magistrate Judge's Order" within 10 days after being served with the order. The objecting party must comply with all requirements of NECrimR 59.2.

DATED June 18, 2015.
